

Clergy
Stuff

FaithStuff

Family At-Home Devotional – The Story of Job – Part V

Job 41 & 42

Story Time

Job was very sad. So many bad things had happened to him.

He lost his family and everything he had. He cried many tears – a whole lake of tears. He got angry with God.

God called out to Job, “Don’t forget that I am God! I am always with you.”

Job felt bad. “I’m sorry I got angry with you, God.”

“I forgive you, Job. But I am angry at your friends, because they did not help you when things were so bad for you.”

“Wait,” Job said. “They didn’t understand. I forgive them. Can you forgive them, too?”

God said, “Yes.” And God did.

Finally, Job started to feel less sad. He got married again and had more children. He got back all the things he had lost. Most of all, he never forgot that God was with him, always.

Weekly Challenge

Like muscles that are strengthened when they are torn and reknit, our faith can be strengthened when it is challenged and rebuilt. Think of a time your faith was challenged and strengthened and share it with your family.

For the Littles

What is your strongest muscle? Is your believing in God stronger than that muscle? Why or why not?

1

HIGHS 'N LOWS

What was a high point of your day? What was a low point?

2

FAITH

Does God get mad at us? Why do you think so or think not?

3

BLESS

May life’s challenges tear your faith muscles and rebuild them even stronger. Amen.

Which road should Job take to reunite with the rest of his family and friends?

When God finished putting Job in his place, Job realized he had overstepped with his ranting. Job repented and God blessed him even more greatly than before.

PUMP IT UP

Exercise your faith muscles this week. Read scriptures you've never read before. Attend a Bible study online you've never attended. Have a conversation with someone about a question or doubts you have about God.

Don't worry if it aches a little – building muscles usually does.

